Shands children's Hospital

UF Health Shands Children's Hospital invites all neonatal intensive care unit, or NICU, graduates and their families to the 2015 reunion and fall festival. Various community organizations will be onsite to provide information to help keep your family healthy and safe. The reunion is a great opportunity to reconnect with other NICU families and NICU doctors and nurses, too. Light refreshments will be served. For reunion questions, please call the UF Neonatology office at 352.373.8985.
